For those unfamiliar with Jay Gordon, he is a West-Coast, certified Bad Mofo Blues/Rock guitar player. Endorsed by Gretsch, he coaxes enough energy out of those great Gretsch guitars to power most third world countries!

Seriously, though, Jay has opened for the likes of Albert Collins and Johnny Winter and has played Clapton's Crossroads Guitar Festival. Add to that his Grammy nomination, and his pedigree is in place.

FEATURING THE MUSIC OF

Chuck Berry (The God Father of Rock and Roll that started it all)
B B King, Robert Johnson, Buddy Guy, Muddy Waters, Elmore James, Albert King, Bonnie Raitt, Alvin Lee, Freddie King, Albert Collins, John Lee Hooker and more

He was one of 50 guitarists picked by Eric Clapton to perform at the 2004 Crossroads Guitar Festival. Jay played and opened up for many famous artist, such as, Johnny Winter, Eric Clapton, ZZ Top, Lynyrd Skynyrd, BB King, Buddy Guy, and more. Jay also played to 20,000 screaming fans at Sturgis, S.D. several times.

Enough about Jay ... Just book him for a show and you won't be disappointed.
